Binding Nomination

Please complete in capital letters and in BLACK INK only

IF YOU HAVE NOT MADE A PREVIOUS NOMINATION AND WISH YOUR SPOUSE TO CONTINUE AS YOUR BENEFICIARY YOU DO NOT NEED TO DO ANYTHING - DO NOT COMPLETE THIS FORM.

If you do not nominate your legal personal representative, the Scheme rules require that the benefit be paid to your spouse or dependant same sex partner, if any.

Where you are not survived by a spouse, your death benefit payment defaults to your legal personal representative.

If you have left a Will, your legal personal representative will be the executor of your Will and your death benefit will form part of your estate for distribution in accordance with your Will. If you do not leave a Will, your legal personal representative will be the administrator of your estate and your death benefit will form part of your estate and be distributed according to law.

Please ensure that you have first read the 'Important Notes' before completing this form.

IMPORTANT NOTES

You should read the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) before completing this form. The PDS is available from Member Services and the Scheme's website.

LEGAL PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

Nomination of your legal personal representative (Estate) is optional.

Where a nomination has not been made, any remaining account balance will be paid by the Trustee to your spouse (either legal or de facto), dependant same-sex partner, or to your Estate where you are not survived by a spouse or dependant same-sex partner.

BINDING NOMINATIONS

The Trustee is bound by this nomination and must pay out any death benefit according to your instructions while the nomination remains valid (usually up to a maximum period of 3 years before a renewal is required.)

WITNESS DEFINITION

A witness can be anyone who is at least 18 years of age and is not a beneficiary.

Please note: It is important that you keep an up-to-date and valid will.

SPOUSE/SAME-SEX PARTNER

The Trustee will examine and determine who is your spouse or dependant same-sex partner in terms of the Trust Deed and relevant law in the event of your death.

PROTECTING YOUR PRIVACY

Some of the personal information you are requested to provide is required to establish and maintain your membership in Energy Industries Superannuation Scheme while other information is required under Australian Government Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing measures.

The Trustee is fully committed to comply with the National Privacy Principles in the way in which your personal information is stored and used. Full details of how this is achieved are contained in the Trustee's Privacy Policy, which is available from Member Services or on the Scheme's website at www.eisuper.com.au.
