

How to Make a Complaint

We are committed to providing exceptional service to our members which is why we take any complaint we receive seriously. We have created a simple and straightforward complaint resolution process to help you, if you are dissatisfied, in any way. Making a complaint is simple, easy and free. You can make your complaint by telephone, letter or email. You may complain to us or directly to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA is likely to refer your complaint back to us to respond, if you have not complained to us first.

Internal Complaint Resolution process

External Complaint Resolution process

If you're not satisfied with the outcome of your complaint, or we have not resolved your complaint within 90 days, you can complain to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA is a fair and independent body that can assist you further with resolving your complaint at no cost to you.

There are some time limits for lodging certain complaints. For instance, complaints about the payment of a death benefit, must be lodged with AFCA within 28 days from receipt of our decision letter. You may wish to contact AFCA for more information about their time limits.
